MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENT.

MYSORE STATE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

(BUREAU OF LABORATORIES).

Vaccine Institute, Bangalore.

Notification dated 25th February 1941.

Admission to the Vaccination Training Class, Bangalore.

In supersession of this office Notification dated 8th February 1941 appearing in Part III—2, pages 385 to 387 of the Mysore Gazette, dated 13th February 1941, it is notified to all persons concerned that the following rules are issued for their information.

Rules for admission to the Vaccination Training Class, Bangalore.

1. Application for admission to the Vaccination Training Class should reach the Superintendent, Vaccine Institute, Lal-Bagh Road, Bangalore, in the prescribed form on or before the 15th March 1941. The session will begin from the 1st April 1941 and the period of training will be for three months. Not more than thirty candidates will be admitted for this session.

2. Qualification for Admission.—(a) No candidate will be admitted unless he has passed the S.S.L.C. Examination and has good knowledge of Kannada, reading and writing.

(b) He shall also be above 20 and below 25 years of age.

The Director of Public Health may, however, exempt such persons as may be specially recommended by Local Bodies from the operation of the above rule.

Recommendation for such exemption should reach the Director of Public Health on or before the 1st of the month preceding the session.

(c) Every candidate shall furnish a certificate of physical fitness from a duly qualified Medical Practitioner of and above the rank of Sub-Assistant Surgeon.

3. Nominations by Local Bodies.—(a) Candidates should ordinarily be nominated by the Local Bodies concerned, with an assurance that there is a reasonable prospect of the nominees being employed as Vaccinators within six months from the date on which they are declared to have qualified for such employment.

(b) Each District Board should nominate only one candidate duly qualified according to the rules, requisite certificates and orders of Director of Public Health, if any, as per sub-para under Rule 2 (b) above, being enclosed with the application form.

(c) Such nominations should reach the Superintendent, Vaccine Institute, on or before the 15th of the month preceding the commencement of the session, failing which they will be considered only for the subsequent session.

(d) Two seats in rotation will be reserved for the Municipalities of the State sending up nominations according to the rules.

4. Private Candidates.—If the nominations by the Local Bodies fall short of the required number for any session, the Director of Public Health may, at his discretion admit private candidates duly qualified under the rules to make up the difference.

5. Fees.—No tuition fees will be levied from the candidates nominated by Local Bodies who will bear all incidental charges connected with the maintenance and travelling expenses of their nominees. Private candidates admitted under Rule 4, shall pay a tuition fee of Rs. 30 for the course and bear all other incidental charges connected with their training.

6. Field Training.—(i) Candidates should be prepared to undergo field training in any part of the State to which they may be deputed by the Superintendent, Vaccine Institute, for the purpose.

(ii) The Local Body nominating a candidate will have to bear incidental charges such as actual travelling expenses not exceeding Rs. 15 and maintenance expenses of the candidate, viz., Rs. 15 per mensem for three months.

(iii) Private candidates shall bear their own charges, tuition fee being not inclusive of such.

7. Attendance.—At the end of each session, there shall be an examination conducted by the Superintendent, Vaccine Institute, to which no candidate shall be admitted unless he has attended 90 per cent of the working days in the session.

8. Minimum for Pass.—At such an examination (as is referred to in Rule 7) no candidate shall be declared to have qualified for a certificate unless he obtains 50 per cent in the theoretical and 80 per cent in the practical and viva voce portions of the examination.

A certificate under the signature of the Superintendent of the Vaccine Institute and the countersignature of the Director of Public Health in Mysore, Bangalore, shall be granted to each successful candidate in the prescribed form.

9. A candidate losing his certificate may obtain a duplicate copy of it on application to the Superintendent, Vaccine Institute, in the prescribed form accompanied by a fee of one Rupee.

10. On failure to secure admission to an examination as per Rule 7 or a pass in it as per Rule 8 no candidate shall be permitted to sit for the next sessional examination unless he has undergone again a further full course of three months in a subsequent session and paid an examination fee of Rs. 10 at the end of such course.
